Thursday, August 30
Read I Corinthians 19:12-17.
Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. (I Corinthians 19:12.)

LONG, long ago a friend asked an old man why he complained so much.

"Oh," said he, "I have every day so much to do. I have two falcons to tame, two hares to keep from running away, two hawks to manage, a serpent to control a lion to chain, and a sick man to tend and wait upon."

Then said the friend, "But no man has all these things to do at once."

"Ah," corrected the old man, "but it is with me as I have said. The two falcons are my two eyes, the two hares are my feet, the two hawks are my hands, the serpent is my tongue, the lion is my heart, the sick man is my own body."

How true this complaining attitude is of too many of us today! Life is meant to be a loom where we weave the texture of our character, a forge where we temper our wills, and a mart where we ourselves are best able to sell what we have made of ourselves.

Prayer
O Father, we have no greater guide than Thee. Thou art the Creator of all life, of all law, of all love. Guide and bless us this day as we go forth to live. Help us to do so to the honor and glory of Thy name; through Christ, Amen.

"Explosive" is the way Paul Mosher, Maine Extension crops specialist, last week termed the late blight situation on potatoes in Maine. He said conditions have been ideal for the development of light blight spores. He advised treating potato plants with fungicides every five days until top-killing. Also, potato growers who want to keep their tubers from sprouting in storage and who are not raising seed should apply malec hydraxide to potato plants three to four weeks before top-killing.

MAINE GREEN PASTURES WINNERS NAMED

Maine's top winners in the Green Pasture Contest for 1956 are Philip Andrews & Sons, of Fryeburg; Hugh C. Briggs & Son, of Turner; and James Smith, of Palmyra. State judges inspected the 14 best Green Pasture farms in 11 counties to choose the winners. State judges are last year's winners—Carl Wood, of Cornville; Harold Souther, of Livermore Falls; and Clement Smith, of Monmouth. The New England judges will be in Maine next week to place the three winners in order and decide the regional winners. Ralph A. Corbett, Extension Chairman of the University of Maine, is chairman of the New England judging committee.
